Accepts Call.

The Rev George B Gowen has accepted the call to the pastorate of the Christian church at Nashville and he notified the congregation of the Broadway Christian church of Louisville to this effect at a meeting Wednesday night. He has been pastor of the Broadway Christian church for four years and in that time the membership has largely increased. His resignation will take effect about the last of next month.

Died in Texas.

News has been received of the death of Mr Green Adams, which occurred at Millsap, Texas, last week. He was a brother of Mesdames Solon B Henry, E W Harris and W L Lawson, of this city. He was born in Garrard county, and resided here for many years. He was well known to many of our citizens, who held him in high esteem, and regret to learn of his death. The remains were interred at Millsap, Texas.

Benefitting and Enjoyable.

The class in physical culture, taught by Mrs Florence Bacon, gave a very delightful entertainment at the W C T U Rest Rooms Thursday evening. The members of the class are delighted with the benefits derived from the course, and are especially well pleased with Mrs Bacon and her splendid manner of teaching. Physical culture is not an experiment, but has come to stay, and is being practiced all over the country. Mrs Bacon thinks of returning to Lancaster, and if she does, a very large class of ladies will avail themselves of the opportunity of her splendid instruction.

Next Sunday will be Home Mission day at the Christian church. The motto of the church is, "A Gift from Every Member." This is to support missionaries in America.

Eld. Tindler will go to Carlisle Friday to address the C. W. B. M. Dist. Convention.

Must Pay Big Damages.

The Court of Appeals has affirmed the decision of the Garrard Circuit Court, and the town of Lancaster must pay Mrs M C Walters one thousand dollars for injuries she received by falling over some curb stone which had been placed on the street to build a side walk. It will be remembered that some time last year, her husband was taken suddenly ill during the night, and, in going to call a neighbor, she ran over the curb stones and received a severe fall. Suit was brought and the case tried before Judge Sautley, the jury finding damages in the sum of one thousand dollars. The town appealed the case, with the above result.

Dunlap.

A telephone message from Lexington, Saturday morning, informed the editor of the death of his sister, Mrs Woodford G Dunlap, which occurred at her home in that city about seven o'clock that morning. Mrs Dunlap had been in bad health for many years and death was caused by acute indigestion. Funeral services were held at the family residence, Sunday, conducted by the Rev R O Kirkwood and Dean Baker P Lee, the interment taking place at the Lexington Cemetery. She is survived by her husband and two children, Miss Gena and George. An appropriate notice of Mrs Dunlap's death will be published in next issue of this paper, as we will not receive it in time for publication this week.

Congratulations.

The Record congratulates its friends of the Buckeye and McCreary neighborhoods upon the fact that they will soon be able to come into Lancaster without having to pass through Battle Row, a nest of negro cabins and filth. The new street will be as level as a billiard table, as straight as a shingle, and soon beautified with new, handsome houses. We don't mean to boast, please, but the articles on the subject, published in recent issues of this paper, put our business men to thinking over the matter, and while they went in for investment, yet they also wanted to show the people of that end of the county that they appreciated their friendship and wanted to do all in their power to benefit them. The Record has clamored for this street ever since its present editor has been on the tripod, and now that it is not a surmise, but an assured fact, we feel like celebrating the accomplishment in appropriate style, so here's to the health of every man, woman and child who travels the Buckeye pike.

Hon. Harve Helm, of Stanford, was here Monday, and as another of the many ways in which he has shown his liberality and big heartedness, gave a handsome prize to the Athletic Tournament, to be held in this city soon.

"A Dishonored God in a Dishonored Sabbath" will be Rev. E. H. Pearce's morning subject, 10:45, next Sunday, at the Memorial Methodist church. Gospel Song Service at night, 7:30. Services by pastor. League Service 3 p. m.

The Best Treatment.

We call attention to the advertisement in this issue, of Prof. Thos. C. Adams, who will be in Lancaster, to instruct a class in this wonderful treatment. The Adams system has been praised everywhere it has been given, and is one of the best in the United States. See ad.

Flower Sale.

The Ladies Aid Society has arranged with Harbison, the florist, to have a sale of flowers at Mount & Elkin's store, beginning Friday (to-day), and continuing one week. Plants of all kinds will be on hand, and you should not fail to see the lovely display. Every plant to be found in the large city stores will be on hand and prices the lowest.

Court Day.

Monday was the best court day in many months, there being more life in trade of all kinds, especially in the stock line. Many sales were made, all grades bringing better prices than usual. Although the farmers have been considerably behind, yet they are rapidly catching up with their work, and will soon be in shape for a good season's work. The horse show attracted much attention, while some who had nothing else to do, talked politics.

Presents Resolutions.

Richmond Register.—On last Tuesday morning, being the second day of the present term of the Madison Circuit Court, Col. J. W. Caperton as chairman, presented to the Madison Circuit Court, the resolutions adopted by the members of the Richmond Bar, in regard to the life and character of A. C. Wells recently deceased. Col. Caperton's speech was one of the most touching and eloquent addresses ever made in the court house on a similar occasion. Major C F Burnam, Hon B A Crutcher, J A Sullivan and Judge J M Benton also delivered appropriate and impressive remarks.

NEW STREET WILL BE BUILT.

sale of Lots a Success. Business Men Who Want to Build Up Lancaster. Good Lots at Good Prices.

If those croakers who think Lancaster is a dead town had been present at the sale of lots last Friday, they would have gone into a hole and pulled the sole in after them.

Notwithstanding the fact that a big rain was falling, the crowd proved by its presence and spirited bidding that they want the town to improve, want to give the good people of Buckeye, a decent inlet to town, and, at the same time, get a bargain which seldom presents itself in Lancaster. The street which has been described in these columns, is fifty feet wide, and one of the prettiest grades to be found anywhere. Owing to the lateness in beginning the sale, and the bad weather only about seven of the thirty lots were sold. Mr Hamilton tells us he will have another auction when he returns from the South, about two weeks hence, when he has every assurance of selling the remainder. We interviewed several purchasers and each told us he would build a nice house on his lot, and that too at an early date. The good this will do for Lancaster cannot be estimated. In order that our readers may know the character of the buyers we will name a few: J R and Sam Haselden, R H Batson, W McJohnston, Dr J M Acton, John Ballard, Johnson and Ap Price, Wm Ward, G B Swinebroad, Jas Sanders, J O Hemphill, Jas Clark, Wm Hamilton and T B Walker.

These men show that they want to build up the town, and The Record joins all improvement-loving people in singing their praises. The average price was $200, however the largest lot is yet to be sold. The next sale will be duly advertised in The Record, when the remaining lots will be quickly taken and work on the new street commenced.

Eld. F M Tindler will preach on the following subject next Sunday night at 7:15, "The Love of Pleasure."

Joe E Robinson has purchased of the heirs, the Gen. Collier residence, on Lexington street.

Business Change.

Messrs Jas I Hamilton and W O Dunlap have purchased the furniture business of Jas A Beazley & Co., and will take possession next Monday. Mr Beazley retains the undertaker's business and will continue to conduct same.

Good for Lancaster Man.

As stated in a recent issue of this paper, Mr. J. R. Haselden, of this city has made a deal on his patented filter by which he is to receive $1,000 royalty per month. Messrs Yuel, of Bardonia are the purchasers, and a solid organization has been formed to make and sell the filters. Mr. Haselden devised the filter some years ago, but has never had time to get it properly before the market. It has had a wonderful sale, however. Lancaster has no more deserving young man in her borders, and The Record congratulates him upon his success.
